METAL IMPACT

something from space infect the human race a virus that leads us sent from a strange base we lost community no contact on tv cybrains attack us to destroy our destiny

no flying satellites interference hit the sky music fills the night for metal we will fight metal impact-scream for vengeance metal impact-sleep bloody hate metal impact-but we'll fight metal impact-with the demon now we have the contact reached our goal dark wishes path away swallowed by black holes we have the answer and we are not alone deep in space we wanna win the race

END BY DAWN

i thought what i feel is absolutly real torment in my mind is more present as steel rotation in a wild desert of blind tales if i want to live i hope it works for me oh i will fight with all my power i am the one who says how we are living for

painless awake i say end by dawn i awake painless and free i'll bite unkown bullets, so rough pray to my gods, to be tuff

let's start to believe this way

GHOSTS

sometimes in a starry night you can see them ride better to take shelter to get out of their sight hunting through the night they come for your mind got no place to hide beware the pack of hell look up into the sky you will see them fly riding clouds from coast to coast they're ghosts-they're ghosts demons from the other side filled with black souls watching out for victims to kill is their goal when you are lying in your bed dreaming about your death crawling inside your dream and nobody can hear you scream

you're at an age all around you cries stop play no more metal but you can't get enough they try to stop you day by day but you still shout out get out of my metal way here i'm standing between my gates my metal soul goes on and on be my brother or an enemy my tempest has just begun

older and older together with my brothers we stand proud shoulder by shoulder no one can say how we have to play harder or louder we spit on,what they say

DARKER THAN HELL

i find myself inside a room standing here all alone darkness will come soon carry a heart full of stone got no more tricks to show feeling like a helpless slave got no place to hide or go a man one step before the grave looking through the window of my soul hear the churchbell ring my toll darker than hell-my soul begins to rot darker than hell-inside my heartblood darker than hell-but i will survive better than hell is, hold on to life here i`m back from the grave to make a step into the light i don`t wanna be nobody`s slave i`ve changed my sight coming out from the dark all i need is a helping hand to light up my fire into the future land

DROP

i try to be the best one man against the rest i am the chosen one born of the seventh son it is in my blood i`m feeling like a god can`t you see the sign now starts my time

crying for a sign that heaven could be mine be the only one shining like the sun i should fly like a phoenix in the sky falling down from the top

now i`m standing here with a heart full of fear i`m walking in the dark looking for a spark feeling so cold inside sorrourded by the night i try to break free to be the one i should be

MASTER OF STRINGS

welcome to the darkside of your dreams i am the one to let them arise you`re the toy inside my games i set your soul in flames like a marionette dancing at my strings you are like a bird with broken wings

you`re a puppet on the strings i say go and you start to sing i`m the one inside your head call me the master of life and death

you try to break out of my spell but i`m inside your little hell still you`re waiting for a sign but you will be always mine

SKULLBREAKER

a savior comes from the sky to see mankind on its knees riding on clouds of thunder a man against peace he`s a bone crushing alien from another galaxy the smell of blood drives him into extasy skullbreaker-a dark angel of sin skullbreaker-prey deep from within see the coldness in his eyes the wildness of a hurricane he sucks out your soul with a burning laser flame

thinking about the times where metal was a choice we stood together to make some heavy noise call us the hidden behind the nameless crowd we enjoy our music and play it loud

we are the hidden with our decision

million metalheads and one mission

we are prisoners inside a sound called time still we are waiting for the final sign oh, we wanna return to bring it to an end we fight for everyone who is our friend

we are on a travel on a road of metal freedom names the horse we saddle warriors for the future so let it be written defenders of metal praise the hidden

HOUSE OF HORROR

welcome to my nightmare take a step into my world come on get out of your chair even to fly like a bird i'll show you beautiful colors you've never seen before unlock your little soul i open for you every door toys try to make you insane in my little childhood room madness comes over you inside this dreams of doom get into my house of horror it fills you up with sorrow if you try to clear your mind lies are gonna make you blind welcome into my house of horror a dark childhood never ends only a little chance to be the past got it's grip on you there's no chance to break free always called an idiot who never realised the truth helpless between birth and death since you lost your youth

INSIDE MY HEAD

i'm drifting from side to side my mind plays games with me too much stories deep inside no chance to find a key my dreams are filled up with pain still it's driving me insane can you hear my screams they're always in vain dreaming from side to side so deep, inside my head the madness takes control i fear the crawling death inside a psycho therapy they can't show me no way out there is nothing i can see to take a step out of the crowd

please take me away from here awake me from my dreams try to count every tear all i want is to live without fear
